Synopsis

SPT Services Sdn Bhd, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Johor Port Berhad will provide operating equipment and system for the solid product jetty as well as to manage the operations and maintenance of the jetty. PRPC Utilities and Facilities Sdn Bhd (PRPC UF), a subsidiary of Petronas, signed an agreement with SPT Services Sdn. Bhd. for the operatorship of the Pengerang Integrated Complex's (PIC) Solid Product Jetty.

The solid product jetty was designed as a tailor-made facility to manage the volume produced by the PIC as well as to ensure the timely export of containerised polymer and sulphur to market.

Apart from the jetty, the PIC also includes the refinery and petrochemical integrated development, the Pengerang co-generation plant, a liquefied natural gas re-gasification terminal, a raw water supply project, the Pengerang deepwater terminal, as well as centralised and shared utilities and facilities.

For this technical visit, participants will be able to understand the philosophy of cargo handling and the flow of cargoes with respect to designed facilities. This exposure will help engineers to understand and appreciate operational requirement in the material handling field. We are pleased to invite all members to participate in this visit.
